

Aik Ong (d. 2024)

Aik joined us in 2nd year having done a B Med Sc, and graduated in 1974, then later worked in general practice at Northland Shopping Centre and with the Monash University Health Service.

He was married to Diana, with 3 children, Katherine (a medical graduate now in public health), Anthony and Amanda, and 4 grandchildren.

Aik was a true gentleman who loved fishing and cards, and with several others from our year was a renowned member of MUMPS (Monash University Medical Poker Society).

He became confused at a card game some years ago, and died from progressive dementia in 2024.
